Golterman & Sabo Named Best Specialty
Subcontractor by ASA Midwest Council
St. Louis Subcontractor Honored for Second Consecutive Year

ST. LOUIS – April 17, 2011– For the second consecutive year, St. Louis-based Golterman & Sabo has been honored as the top specialty subcontractor in the St. Louis area. The company was recently named Best Specialty Subcontractor (under $11.5 million in gross revenues) by the American Subcontractors Association (ASA) Midwest Council. Golterman & Sabo specializes in the installation of specialty building products for commercial buildings and schools.

Subcontractors are nominated and selected for the annual ASA awards by general contractors. Criteria for nomination include: bid ethics practice, equitable contract provisions, safety policy and practice, payment practices, jobsite supervision, scheduling coordination, subcontractor relations and administrative procedures.

“We would like to thank our colleagues in St. Louis both for the award and for their continued support,” says President Herb Golterman. “We work hard to offer top-quality craftsmanship and customer satisfaction, and we value the relationships we have built with our customers over the years.”

Golterman & Sabo received the award and was honored at the ASA 18th Annual Awards Gala at the Four Seasons Hotel April 9.

Founded in 1946, Golterman & Sabo has a rich history in St. Louis. In recent years, the company, which is consistently recognized for its expertise in acoustical applications, has completed several high-profile projects including the Purina Event Center in Gray Summit, Missouri; and Centene Corporation headquarters in Clayton.

Works in progress include the Gateway Arch in downtown St. Louis and the Peabody Opera House (formerly the Kiel Opera House) in St. Louis.
