Golterman & Sabo Named Best Specialty
Subcontractor by ASA Midwest Council
St. Louis Subcontractor Honored at Recent Awards Gala

ST. LOUIS – May 6, 2010 – St. Louis-based Golterman & Sabo has been honored as one of the top specialty subcontractors in the St. Louis area. The company was recently named Best Specialty Subcontractor (under $11.5 million in gross revenues) by the American Subcontractors Association (ASA) Midwest Council. Golterman & Sabo specializes in the installation of specialty building products for commercial buildings and schools.

Subcontractors are nominated for the annual ASA awards based on criteria including: bid ethics practice, safety policy and practices, jobsite supervision, communication, scheduling coordination, project relations, administrative procedures and quality workmanship. Winners are voted on by past ASA general contractor award winners.

“We are honored to be considered the top specialty building products subcontractor in the Midwest Region,” says President Herb Golterman. “Our goal is to provide top-quality craftsmanship and complete customer satisfaction. It is gratifying to know that area contractors value our work.”

Founded in 1946, Golterman & Sabo has a rich history in St. Louis. In recent years, the company, which is consistently recognized for its expertise in acoustical applications, has completed several high-profile acoustical ceiling projects including the Penguin/Puffin House at the St. Louis Zoo, the Lakeside Café at the St. Louis Zoo, Terrace View restaurant at the City Garden in downtown St. Louis, and Club Sevens at the Casino Queen.
